

Celebrate the New Year! Soup Joumou / Pumpkin Soup at your Public Library!

Saturday, December 28, 2013

1:00 PM

Ages: All ages

Get ready to celebrate the New Year by learning the secrets of making a delicious Soup Joumou, pumpkin soup.

Folk artist, storyteller, and cook

Liliane Nerette Louis spins tales from her native Haiti about how the Haitian people celebrated Christmas and the new year. The soul-warming dish commemorates January 1, 1804, the date of Haiti's liberation from France.

Participants will learn the secrets of making a delicious Soup Joumou and everyone will have a bowl of Yellow Pumpkin Soup to enjoy!

Liliane Nerette Louis

This is a free program sponsored by the Friends of the North Miami Library.

Public Library

835 NE 132 Street
North Miami, FL 33161

For more information, please call the
Library at 305-891-5535 or visit northmiamifl.gov/nomilibrary.